Enjoy lunch at a typical local auberge before we continue riding through the Burgundian countryside. Pedal alongside the famous Canal de Bourgogne which connects Burgundy to Paris and is one of the most attractive canals in France. Finish on relatively flat terrain all the way to our luxurious accommodation at Abbaye de la Bussière, where we will spend two nights. This evening we're treated to a meal prepared especially for us by the hotel chef. Bonne dégustation!

La Route de Grands Crus in the Côte d'Or

After breakfast at the hotel, cycle from the Canal de Bourgogne up to the forest of the Hautes-Côtes de Nuits before descending into the heart of the world's most renowned vineyards. Our journey along the Route des Grands Crus will showcase the esteemed beginnings of some of history's most famous wines, taking us through wine villages and estates like Chambolle-Musigny, Échezeaux, Romanée-Conti, and Nuits-Saint-George, the birthplace of Chevaliers du Tastevin—a prestigious society of Burgundy wine connoisseurs. Explore one of the vineyards where Burgundy winemaking began in Clos de Vougeot before stopping in Gevrey-Chambertin to taste robust red wines (famously favored by Napoleon Bonaparte himself), paired with lunch prepared by our winemaking friend, Christine Drouhin. After lunch, ride the rest of the way to the hotel, or opt for a lift back in the van. This evening, visit the charming village of Châteauneuf and dine at the helm a chef who was awarded France's best artisan of the year.

Burgundy's beautiful tiled roofs lead the way to Savigny-lès-Beaune where we join Greg, a friend and passionate vigneron, at his home. Here we'll enjoy a generous tasting of sparkling Crémant de Bourgogne before we ride a few more miles to medieval Beaune for a bistro lunch in the centre-ville.
