DAY
1

Welcome to Wine Country

Your guides will pick you up in Sonoma and whisk you into the heart of Napa Valley. Our trip kicks off with a celebratory brunch at a winery, where we toast to the coming days of exploring wine country by bicycle. After a bike fitting and safety briefing, our first ride meanders out of Napa through the peaceful heights of Enchanted Hills. Coast into the idyllic town of St. Helena for a coffee stop, then finish the last few uphill miles to the front doorstep of our hotel (or take a lift in the van). We'll settle into Solage, our home for the rest of the week—a place of absolute elegance amidst the natural beauty of Calistoga. Spend the evening at another winery and be treated to a private dining experience (paired with plenty of Pinot, of course).

Meals: Lunch / Dinner

Destinations: Los Carneros, Enchanted Hills, Calistoga

Accomplished: 26 miles / 42 km, elevation gain: 2,149 feet / 655 meters

Longer Option: 38 miles / 61 km, elevation gain: 2,621 feet / 798 meters

2

Charming Calistoga

This morning we'll depart right from our hotel to discover the surroundings of charming Calistoga. Ride west into rolling Franz Valley, passing through the Mayacamas mountains, then loop back to the tiny, character-rich town of Calistoga. Once known for its restorative hot springs, Calistoga is quickly evolving into a new Napa Valley destination full of local gems. We'll visit one of our favorites this afternoon for a local olive oil tasting and lunch. After, add on extra miles riding through vineyard-laden Chalk Hill, or head back to your slice of heaven at Solage: have a glass of wine, a game of bocce, or a transcendent swim in the pool. Tonight we enjoy an exclusive tasting and a very special wine country dinner.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Destinations: Franz Valley, Calistoga

Accomplished: 20 miles / 32 km, elevation gain: 1,386 feet / 422 meters

Longer Option: 45 miles / 72 km, elevation gain: 3,265 feet / 995 meters

Lesser-Known Napa Valley

Wake to another beautiful California day and enjoy a cappuccino and exquisite al fresco breakfast. Today we tackle Howell Mountain, which rises from the foothills outside St. Helena. Climb to the top or catch a lift in the van, and we'll all descend together into the wilds of Pope Valley, Napa's lesser-known sister where you can still catch glimmers of the Gold Rush-era Old West. Keep coasting to the lake in Chiles Valley—the last few miles to lunch are lined with a laundry list of esteemed Napa Valley wineries. Enjoy an al fresco lunch in the California sunshine at one of our favorite cycling cafés, then it's back to Solage for some time by the pool. On our last evening together, we'll sip craft cocktails, share our favorite moments from the last few days, and sit down to a memorable dinner at Solage.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Destinations: Howell Mountain, Pope Valley, St. Helena

Accomplished: 22 miles / 35 km, elevation gain: 1,178 feet / 359 meters

Longer Option: 53 miles / 85 km, elevation gain: 3,833 feet / 1,168 meters

4

Leave Your Heart in Napa

Treat yourself to one last long morning at Solage—perhaps a fireside coffee or a simple stroll around the property. If you prefer, stretch your legs one last time with a quick ride outside Calistoga. After an indulgent brunch, we'll bring you back to Sonoma and see you off on the journey home.

Meals: Breakfast

Destinations: Calistoga

Optional Ride: 20 miles / 32 km, elevation gain: 1,457 feet / 444 meters
