Welcome to the Dordogne

Meet your guides at the Sarlat train station and begin with a bike fitting and safety briefing before our first ride. We'll warm up along the Dordogne river and follow undulating roads through this densely forested and serene region. Get to know one another at our first lunch, a family-style picnic on a local farm. Choose to continue riding through ancient Périgord country or transfer directly to our historic hotel in the center of Sarlat. There's time to explore this storybook town before dinner at a charming restaurant in town.

Lascaux Cave

Find your zen on our morning ride into the Domainale Barade forest, a peaceful stretch of shady walnut trees and poetic countryside. You'll arrive ready to contemplate Lascaux, a cave complex of Cro-Magnon paintings that date back over 17,000 years, though they were only discovered in 1940. Emerge back into daylight and return to the bike, following the Vézère river to Saint-Léon-sur-Vézère—quite possibly the most idyllic town in all of France. Taste the region's famed foie gras at lunch, then continue biking or take a lift in the van to our next hotel. Tonight, walk into the petite village of Trémolat for dinner at a typical bistro.

Along the Dordogne

After breakfast, set off on a picturesque ride through the green scenery of Périgord—a route dotted with charming townhouses reflected in the gently flowing Dordogne river. Our next stop is Cadouin, a medieval village known for its UNESCO World Heritage abbey that has become a stop for pilgrims on the Saint Jacques de Compostelle route. After a leisurely lunch, embark on a relaxed ride back to our hotel. This afternoon, there's time to stroll through the property's lush gardens or take a dip in the limestone pool. Tonight, we'll enjoy a very special dinner at our hotel's Michelin-starred restaurant, featuring inventive local dishes that celebrate the region's seasonal ingredients.

Destinations: Trémolat, Cadouin

Wine Versus Wine

Monbazillac's sweet white wines are the perfect bridge between the Dordogne and our foray into Bordeaux. We'll get there via the week's most challenging ride, which travels west through some hilly terrain but eventually gives way to the otherworldly vineyards of Les Landes. At the end of our rewarding descent, a first taste of wine awaits us at Château de Monbazillac—and trust us when we say it poses some serious competition to Bordeaux's Sauternes. After lunch, ride to the town of Bergerac—our last destination in the Dordogne—then take an hourlong transfer into the heart of Bordeaux. We waste no time in this essential winegrowing region and head straight for Saint-Émilion to meet our friend and wine merchant Benoit. In his underground caveau, we'll sip the wine that has earned Bordeaux its world renown before dinner on your own in this quaint cobblestone town.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch

Destinations: Lalinde, Saint-Capraise-de-Lalinde, Monbazillac, Bergerac

Accomplished: 30 miles / 49 km, elevation gain: 1,377 feet / 420 meters

Pomerol and Saint-Émilion

Today is all about the world-famous vineyards of Bordeaux. Begin cycling past some of the most prestigious estates in Pomerol and Saint-Émilion: Cheval Blanc, Beau-Séjour Bécot, Pressac, Petrus, and Angélus to name a few. During a wine tasting and lunch at Château de la Dominique, we'll dip our toe into some right-bank reds from the Saint-Émilion appellation, then hop back in the saddle for the last push to our hotel. A special table is set to celebrate our final evening, and dinner is lovingly prepared using only garden-fresh produce and locally sourced ingredients. The cherry on top is the domaine's own wine, produced in partnership with Château Angelus—known for their Saint-Émilion Premier Grand Crus.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Destinations: Pomerol, Bertin, Montagne, Saint-Émilion, Sainte-Colombe

Accomplished: 31 miles / 50 km, elevation gain: 176 feet / 537 meters
