The biggest climb of the week comes early, but is rewarded with beautiful views of Tomales Bay. After lunch at a local cyclists' hangout, we'll continue to the sleepy town of Freestone, then choose a van transfer or continue a few more miles on the bike to the Bodega Bay Lodge. Tonight, we kick off the tour with an exquisite meal at Terrapin Creek.

After, hop in the van and head directly to Healdsburg or challenge yourself with some extra miles amidst the vines. Our favorite Healdsburg restaurant hosts us for dinner this evening.

Undiscovered Napa

The focus of our day is discovering a side of Napa that remains relatively untapped. Begin with a challenging six-mile climb up Howell Mountain, or catch a lift in the van and begin riding from the top. The rest of the way to lunch consists of miles of unexplored roads as we meander past Lake Hennessey and down towards St. Helena. Grab lunch from a funky food truck at a local winery owned by a family of cyclists—when enjoyed with the estate’s own wines, it’s a fun and relaxed take on wine pairings. After lunch, choose to keep riding, transfer back to the hotel, or explore the shops and tasting rooms of St. Helena. This evening, enjoy a memorable farewell dinner at one of our favorite local restaurants.
